

Fall 2019

Ecosystems and Water Resources of the Central California Flood Plain: A Training for Educators

Check out this professional development opportunity offered for teachers, faculty, informal educators, community educators, and after school paraprofessionals. Earn stipends, college credit, and receive free materials for your students. Register soon as space is limited.

Saturdays: October 12, 26 & November 9

The Floodplain Ecology Training will be 3 plus days and include STEM and environmental science content focused on Central California floodplain and watershed ecology. Different types of California wetlands will be investigated.

Location - STEM Central: California WATERS Science Center, Sanger, CA

- Watershed Curriculum
- NGSS aligned lessons
- Delta wetland field study by charter bus on October 26, 2019.
- $200 stipend for completing training
- Travel stipend available for car pools coming more than 50 miles
- Optional university credit available - 3 Units - CI 280 T - Fresno State - additional session/project required for units.
- $15 preregistration fee.

2019 Flood Plain Application

Online Registration

October 12, 26, November 9, 2019. Three plus days of unique training on watersheds, flood plains, and water science.

Daily Schedule - 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. except field trip on October 26 to Delta region. Field trip - depart Sanger at 7:00 a.m. - Return 7:00 p.m.

Register online and complete the registration form and send to jvaladez@cvsamacademy.org -

Thank you.

STEM Central: WATERS Science Center, Sanger CA

Jerry D. Valadez, Senior Scientist | STEM Central WATERS Science Center, Sanger CA | 559-288-4953
jvaladez@cvsamacademy.org

STAY CONNECTED